

Contents

List of Abbreviations	vii
Introduction	1
1 A Neo Neo-Gramscian Reading of Hegemony	13
Antonio Gramsci's Conceptualisation of Hegemony	13
The Neo-Gramscian Perspective: A Brief Overview	24
Towards a Neo Neo-Gramscian Perspective	30
2 Construction and Projection of US Hegemony	52
Creating a New World Order: From 'One World' to 'Free World' 52
Reconstituting the National Historical Bloc	60
Embedding American Hegemony in the European Core	65
3 Crisis, Reconstruction &amp; Reassertion of US Hegemony	82
Pax Americana under Threat	82
Financialization, Neoliberalism &amp; the Restoration of Class Power	93
Reassertion of American Hegemony	105
4 Change &amp; Continuity under Bush and Obama...and Beyond	133
Bush's 'New Imperialism'	133
Bush's 'Old Imperialism'	139
"Yes We Can?..."	148
Crisis in the 'Heartland'	153

vi Contents

5	The China 'Challenge'	172
	The Geopolitics of Chinese Economic Statecraft	172
	Sino-American Relations	186
	Dynamics of China's Passive Revolution	203
	Conclusion	241
	Index	255