

Contents

	List of figures	ix
	List of tables	x
	Preface	xi
	Notations and abbreviations	xix
1	The making of heterodox microeconomics	1
	Economics is the science of the social provisioning process	1
	Heterodox economics	3
	Community of heterodox economists	3
	Heterodox economic theory	4
	Theoretical core	5
	Heterodox microeconomics	7
	Methodology of heterodox economics	9
	Philosophical foundation	10
	Research strategy: method of grounded theory	14
	Issues of research methods	22
	Historical character of heterodox economic theories	29
	The making of heterodox microeconomic theory	31
2	Structure, agency, and modeling the economy	37
	The social provisioning process	37
	Representing and modeling the productive structure of the economy and the surplus	40
	Circular production	41
	Circular production, non-produced inputs, and scarcity	43
	Fixed investment goods, resource reserves, and the surplus	44
	Social provisioning as a going plant	49

	Representing the relationship between the social surplus and income	50
	Classes, state, and state money	51
	Government expenditures, state money, and the financial sector	53
	Profits, incomes, and the social surplus	56
	Social provisioning as a going economy	58
	Agency, acting persons, organizations, and institutions	60
	The acting person	61
	The business enterprise	62
	The state	64
	The household	65
	Market governance organizations	66
	Trade unions	68
	Agency, acting persons, and core decisions	68
	Modeling the economy as a whole	68
3	The business enterprise: structures	78
	Organizational structure of the business enterprise	78
	Decision-making structure and the acting enterprise	79
	Motivation	79
	Decision-making structure	80
	Management accounting procedures	81
	Structure of production and costs	84
	Production, technology, plants, and direct costs	85
	Shop technique of production and shop expenses	94
	Enterprise technique of production and enterprise expenses	99
	Structure of production and costs of a product line	101
	The heterodox theory of production and costs	103
4	The business enterprise: agency and causal mechanisms	108
	Costing and pricing	108
	Costing-oriented pricing	110
	Mark-up-oriented pricing	111
	Going concern prices	112
	Pricing and the profit mark-up	115
	Market governance and market prices	116
	Investment	116
	Long-range planning	116
	Investment decisions	119

5	Markets and demand for the social product	122
	Market, industry, and the social provisioning process	122
	Market as an institution for social provisioning	122
	Market: defined and delineated	123
	Market and industry	126
	Demand for the social product	129
	Acting household and consumption demand	129
	Structure of market demand and the market price	135
	Differential prices and fluidity of market shares	135
	Relationship between the market price and market sales	137
	Going enterprise, sequential production, and the market price	138
	Competition, market power, and the going market price	142
	Market power and price instability	142
	Price instability and the going enterprise	150
6	Competition, the market price, and market governance	152
	Heterodox approach to market competition and market governance	152
	Competition and market concentration	154
	Basis for managed market competition	158
	Market governance: controlling instability through regulating markets	160
	Private market governance and the market price: trade associations	165
	Legal form	165
	Constitution and purpose	167
	Organization and management	168
	General activities	170
	Private market governance and the market price: price leadership	173
	The dominant enterprise defined and identified	174
	Determining the market price	177
	The dominant enterprise and the market price	177
	Appearance and stability of the dominant enterprise	178
	The evolution of the dominant enterprise: costs	179
	The evolution of the dominant enterprise: competitive strategy	180
	Public market governance and the market price: government regulations	181
	Market competition and the control of the social provisioning process	183

7	Microeconomics and the social provisioning process	187
	Social provisioning and social surplus	187
	Pricing model and theory of prices	189
	Output-employment model and the social surplus	192
	The going economy and its theoretical core	196
	Prices and output-employment decisions	197
	Prices and the going business enterprise	198
	Social surplus, the state, and wages and profits	198
	Social surplus and social provisioning	200
	Theory of value and heterodox microeconomics	201
8	The role of microeconomics in heterodox economics: a view of a heterodox micro theorist	206
	Introduction	206
	The economy as a whole, as a conceptual and theoretical foundation	207
	Effective demand, income distribution, and the social provisioning process	213
	Microeconomics in heterodox economics	216
	Heterodox microeconomic topics and future research	216
	Appendix 1 Heterodox microeconomics course syllabus	223
	Appendix 2 Narrative-qualitative-analytical problem sets	231
	Bibliography	247
	Index	267