

CONTENTS

Figures and Tables ix

1 Introduction 1

A Deeply Puzzling Market Transformation 7

Power Politics and Market Governance 13

2 The Puzzling Transformation of Capital
Market Structure: From Gradual Concentration to Sudden Fragmentation 23

The Evolution of the Market Organization and Its Body Politic 24

The Transformation of Power Relationships among Members 30

The Impact of Power Asymmetry 43

Implications 49

Appendix 51

3 Good Governance in Centralized Markets:
The Old NYSE 55

The Market Makers: Functions and Obligations 59

Market Surveillance 63

Rule Enforcement 72

Market Performance and Quality 76

Moving into the Twenty-First Century 89

- 4 Stratification in Modern Trading:
The Haves and Have-Nots 93
Speed 94
Globalization, Financial Innovation, and Stratification 99
- 5 Bad Governance in Fragmented Markets 107
Weakened Market-Making Obligations 111
Information Asymmetry: Trading Data 114
Information Asymmetry: Market Microstructure 120
Darkness 125
Failing Market Surveillance 137
Implications 146
Appendix 148
- 6 Conclusion: The Way Forward 155
Market Transparency 156
Leveling the Playing Field 162
Proper Accountability for Market Disruption and Bad Governance 164
Consolidation 165
- Acknowledgments 171
Appendix: Market Governance: A Theoretical
Background Note 175
A Political Organization Approach in Relation to Other Theories 175
Behavioral Assumption: Opportunism 181
Glossary 185
Notes 191
Bibliography 225
Index 241