

Contents

List of Illustrative Material	xii
Acknowledgments	xiii
1 Introduction: Democracy, Non-democracy, and the Varieties of Political Competition	1
The Importance of Electoral Competition	3
Political Regimes and State Capacity	5
The Dimensions of Non-Democratic Politics	7
Social Control and Personal Power in Non-Democratic Regimes	9
Authoritarian Institutions	15
Problems and Outcomes of Non-Democratic Rule	18
Regime Change, Revolution, and Democratization	19
Conclusion	21
2 The Changing Face of Non-Democratic Rule	22
Will the Real Democracies Please Stand Up?	22
Democracy, Dictatorship, and the Legitimation of Political Authority	26
A Very Short History of Republican Institutions	29
Waves of Democracy and Non-Democracy	33
Conclusion	38
3 The Struggle over Social Control: Totalitarian and Authoritarian Rule	39
Totalitarianism	39
Authoritarianism	45
Competitive Authoritarianism	50
Origins of Competitive Authoritarianism	55
Conclusion	61
4 Personal Rule	62
Personal Rule vs. Institutionally Constrained Rule	63
The Personalization of Power	66
Power-Sharing and Leader Exit in Non-democracies	69
Personal Power and the Structure of the Ruling Elite	73
Personal Dictatorships and Patrimonial Regimes	75
The Personnel Management Techniques of the Personal Ruler	78
Dependence	80

	Complicity	81
	Division	82
	Conclusion	83
5	Parties	85
	The Diversity of Parties and Party Rule	86
	Parties as Devices for Elite Cohesion	89
	Screening	89
	Career Ladders	90
	The Management of Disloyalty	92
	Varieties of Electoral Experience	94
	Elections as Signals of Invincibility	96
	Elections as Loyalty Management	98
	Elections as Information Gathering Mechanisms	100
	Elections as Rituals of Power	102
	Elections as International Mimicry	106
	Conclusion	107
6	Armies	108
	The Coup	109
	Determinants of Military Intervention	110
	Authoritarian Consolidation after Coups	112
	The Fragility of Military Rule	115
	Conclusion	119
7	Dynastic Families	120
	The Decline of Monarchy	120
	Lynchpin vs. Dynastic Monarchies	123
	Dynastic Monarchies as Family Firms	124
	Succession Rules	125
	The Importance of Elite Cohesion	127
	Conclusion	129
8	Problems of Non-Democratic Consolidation and Control	130
	The People's Lies	131
	The Totalitarian's Dilemma	131
	Surveilling the People	133
	Surveilling the State	134
	The Regime's Lies	135
	Regime Lies under Competitive Authoritarianism	136
	Regime Lies under Totalitarianism	137
	The Censor's Dilemma	138
	Fear, Love, and Rituals of Power	142
	Ritual and Resistance	143
	Ritual and Emotion	145

	Cults of Personality and the Politics of "As If" Support	147
	Flattery Inflation	149
	Conclusion	152
9	Benevolent Authoritarianism	153
	Democracy, Authoritarianism, and Economic Development	155
	Regimes, Incentives, and Information	157
	Non-Democratic Growth: The Evidence	161
	Successful Authoritarian Regimes	165
	Corruption in Democracies and Non-Democracies	168
	Other Public Goods in Democracies and Non-Democracies	170
	Democracy, Authoritarianism, and Violence	171
	Repression, Regimes, and Social Conflict	175
	War and Political Regimes	177
	Conclusion	181
10	The Roots of Regime Change and Democratization	182
	Culture and Authoritarianism	184
	Cultural Explanations of Political Change and Stability	186
	The Legitimacy Theory of Political Change	188
	The Civic Capital Theory of Political Change	191
	Modernization, Cultural Change, and Democracy	193
	Economic Conflict and Regime Change	197
	Regimes as Commitment Devices	198
	Factors that Sharpen Redistributive Conflict	199
	Empirical Evidence for Conflict Theories	200
	Regime Change and Beliefs about Fairness	205
	Conclusion	207
11	How do Regimes Change? Contentious Politics and Its Diffusion	208
	Political Opportunity	210
	Weakened State Capacity and Political Opportunity	211
	Economic Crises and Elite Divisions	212
	International Influences and Perceptions of Opportunity	214
	Periodic Opportunities	216
	False Opportunities	218
	The Rebel's Dilemma	219
	Covert Resistance and Safe Spaces	220
	Emotional Work	222
	Selective Incentives	224
	The Power of Numbers	224
	Moral Awakenings	227
	Informational Updating	228
	Reference Group Updating	229

Informal Assembly Mechanisms	230
The New Social Media	231
Repertoires of Contention	233
Violence vs. Non-Violence	234
Non-Violence and the Power of Numbers	236
The Outcomes of Violent and Non-Violent Campaigns	238
Conclusion	240
12 Conclusion: The Uncertainty of Democratization	242
References	244
Index	267