

Contents

Notes on contributors	iv
Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction: towards a sociology of debt	1
Mark Featherstone
1 Debt, complexity and the sociological imagination	27
Lisa Adkins
2 Debt drive and the imperative of growth	49
Ole Bjerg
3 Memory, counter-memory and resistance: notes on the 'Greek Debt Truth Commission'	69
Joshua Bowsher
4 'Deferred lives': money, debt and the financialised futures of young temporary workers	91
Mark Davis and Laura Cartwright
5 'Choose your moments': discipline and speculation in the indebted everyday	119
Samuel Kirwan, Leila Dawney and Rosie Walker
6 Digital subprime: tracking the credit trackers	145
Joe Deville
7 Debt, usury and the ongoing crises of capitalism	175
Nicholas Gane
8 The art of unpayable debts	195
Max Haiven
9 Ecologies of indebtedness	231
Mark Featherstone
Index	251