

Contents

|                      |            |
|----------------------|------------|
| Preface ..... | vii |
|----------------------|------------|

PART I REFERENDUM

|                                                                                                                                                  |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. The Referendum: Non basta più .....                                                                                                    | 3   |
| 2. The World History of Referendums 1400–2018.....                                                                                               | 11  |
| 3. Plebiscites in Dictatorships – Voting as a Signifiantof Total Control .....                                                        | 34  |
| 4. The Law and Politics of Independence Referendums .....                                                                                        | 47  |
| 5. Consociationalism and Direct Democracy: The Paradoxof Direct Democracy and Elite Accommodation.....                                       | 63  |
| 6. The Stupidity of the People or the Wisdom of CommonFolks? Can Referendums Make Societies Richerand More Equal – or the Opposite?..... | 80  |
| 7. Prediction or Prophecy: Forecasting the Outcomeof EU Referendums.....                                                                     | 94  |
| 8. Brexit as an Inelastic Good: A Case Study in PoliticalEconomy of Referendums .....                                                        | 115 |

PART II CONSTITUTIONAL POLITICS

|                                                                                          |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 9. Comparative Constitution Making: An Introduction .....                                | 129 |
| 10. The Consent of the Governed: The American Revolutionand the US Constitution..... | 149 |
| 11. Total Recall: Revocation of Electoral Mandates.....                                  | 174 |
| 12. Last Thoughts .....                                                                  | 192 |
| Index .....                                                                       | 197 |