

Contents

Introduction: History and Political Economy	xi
Robert Fredona and Sophus A. Reinert
Genoa, Liguria, and the Regional Development of Medieval Public Debt	1
Jeffrey Miner
Angelo degli Ubaldi and the Gulf of the Venetians: Custom, Commerce, and the Control of the Sea Before Grotius	29
Robert Fredona
Capitalism and the Special Economic Zone, 1590–2014	75
Corey Tazzara
Theatrum Economicum: Anders Berch and the Dramatization of the Swedish Improvement Discourse	103
Carl Wennerlind

Gulliver's Travels , Party Politics, and Empire Steve Pincus	131
Commerce, not Conquest: Political Economic Thought in the French Indies Company, 1719–1769 John Shovlin	171
The Economics of the Antipodes: French Naval Exploration, Trade, and Empire in the Eighteenth Century Arnaud Orain	203
A “Surreptitious Introduction”: Opium Smuggling and Colonial State Formation in Late Nineteenth-Century Bengal and Burma Diana Kim	233
A Place in the Sun: Rethinking the Political Economy of German Overseas Expansion and Navalism Before the Great War Erik Grimmer-Solem	253
Wesley Mitchell's Business Cycles After 100 Years Walter A. Friedman	289
On a Certain Blindness in Economic Theory: Keynes's Giraffes and the Ordinary Textuality of Economic Ideas C.N. Biltoft	319
Between Economic Planning and Market Competition: Institutional Law and Economics in the US Laura Phillips Sawyer	349

Punishment, Political Economy, and the Genealogy of Morals

Bernard E. Harcourt

375

Epilogue

393

Index

399